FEDERAL CAMPAIGN FINANCE LAW Contribution Limits

On Nov. 6, 2002, the day after the 2002 midterm elections, a new set of campaign finance laws went into effect. Known as the Bipartisan Campaign Reform Act (BCRA), the law increased the contribution limits for individuals giving to federal candidates and political parties (details below). For more on the new law click here. For a look at the hard money requirements for different types of communications, see this page.

	To any candidate committee (per election ¹)	To any national party committee (per year)	To any PAC, state/local party, or other political committee (per year)	Aggregate total
Individual can give:	Pre-BCRA: $1,000	$20,000	$5,000	$25,000 per year
	2004 Cycle: $2,000, subject to aggregate limit ²	$25,000 per party committee, subject to aggregate limit	$10,000 to each state or local party committee (Levin funds) ³ $5,000 to each PAC or other political committee, subject to aggregate limit	$95,000 per two-year election cycle as follows: $37,500 per cycle to candidates; and $57,500 per cycle to all national party committees and PACs (of which no more than $37,500 per cycle can go to PACs)
	2006 Cycle⁴: $2,100, subject to aggregate limit	$26,700 per party committee, subject to aggregate limit	$10,000 to each state or local party committee (Levin funds)	$101,400 per two-year election cycle as follows:

26044140747

			$5,000 to each PAC or other political committee, subject to aggregate limit	$40,000 per cycle to candidates; and $61,400 per cycle to all national party committees and PACs (of which no more than $40,000 per cycle can go to PACs)
Multicandidate committee can give ⁵ :	Pre-BCRA:	$15,000	$5,000	No limit
	BCRA: Same	Same	Same	Same
Other political committee can give:	Pre-BCRA:	$20,000	$5,000	No limit
	BCRA: Same	Same	Same	Same

¹ Primary and general elections count as separate elections.² BCRA's individual contribution limits are higher to candidates facing wealthy opponents financing their own campaigns.³ Lewis Ayala also can come from corporations and labor unions if allowed by state law.⁴ Under BCRA, some individual contribution limits were indexed for inflation for 2005-06. They will be indexed again in future cycles.⁵ Multicandidate committees are those with more than 50 contributors, that have been registered for at least six months and (with the exception of state party committees) have made contributions to five or more federal candidates.
